

Why we do what we do

Being in all of the spaces where young people are enables young people to feel in control, safe, comfortable, secure, loved and cared for. It helps you to nurture relationships with young people in their space building confidence and creating continuity so that you can then invite those young people into other spaces.

Their Space
Wedding at Cana
John 2: 1-12

Young people's spaces – where they go, you go.
We go to them
We serve them
Build relationship with them
Intentionally spend time with them in their space

School (non-content) lunch clubs, hanging out in the playground, chatting with students around the school site, going to school residential trips like Manor Adventure or outside of school attending Guiding, Scouting, sports clubs, and other secular groups they already attend, hanging out at local parks and sports centres

Their space but a small amount of very light content. Or our space with small or no content.
Due the relationship you have built in their space you are able to be in a position of trust. Able to speak into their lives and situations. They may also build relationships with other Christians.

Shared Space
Dinner with Matthew
Matthew 9:9-13

School lunch clubs with content, RE lessons, non-faith mentoring, Youth Café, School movie night in the Cavern or Church, Christmas party, Church Walks and picnics, quiz's, intentional church family social times

Young people are invited into our space
Become a part of the family of God
In a fun environment exploring scripture together
Teaching about and building a relationship with God.
Invite those young people into deeper discipleship relationships which also leads to building community
